ANTI-WAR SPIRIT RIFE IN AUSTRIA

Situation Given as Becoming Increasingly Grave and Food Supply Is Scarce.

[By Associated Press.]
Rome, April 3.—Advices received here from the Austrian frontier describe the international situation in the dual monarchy as increasingly grave. Opposition to a continuance of the war is said to be growing stronger among the classes suffering most from the scarcity of food. Violent anti-war demonstrations are reported to have occurred in several cities, especially in Vienna, where a crowd attempted to stone the windows of the war office, but was charged by the police and troops. Several persons are said to have been wounded and many others arrested.

RUSSIA URGES AGAINST UNREASONABLE DEMANDS

Sympathizes With Italy's Territorial Expansion Views, but Says Too Large Demands Might Cause Another International Conflict Later. This Statement Is Significant Because of Italy's Warlike Preparations and Dickering With Austria—Important Fighting in Bukovina and Germans Claim Russia Tried for Decisive Victory, but Failed—General Joffre of the French Army Predicts Early Close of the War in Victory for the Allies. German Aeroplane and Two Aviators Captured—British Steamer Torpedoed and Sunk. U. S. Observers Attached to German Army Ordered Home—Italy Concerned Over Division of Austria.

[By Associated Press.]
London, April 3.—The Russian attitude concerning Italy's territorial aspirations as defined in a semi-official announcement from Petrograd, which says Russia sympathizes with Italy's desire for territory about the head of the Adriatic, including Trieste and Trent, but hopes Italy will not urge excessive claims which might bring on another international conflict later. This announcement is significant because of Italy's warlike preparations and efforts to adjust the boundary question with Austria.

The British Embassy at Rome denies the report that Lord Roseberry or any other person is en route to Rome on a special British mission. Vienna reports the recent fighting in Bukovina as more important than officially announced. The report declares the Russians were reinforced and tried for a decisive victory but were repulsed.

PREDICTS EARLY END.
[By Associated Press.]
Paris, April 3.—General Joffre has predicted a speedy termination of the war in a victory for the allies, according to the Eclair.

French Statement.
[By Associated Press.]
Paris, April 3.—(Official.)—The German aeroplane which dropped bombs on Rheims was brought down. Its two aviators were captured unhurt. In the regions of Somme, La Bassée and Dompierre, mining operations continue with noticeable advantage for the French. Two hundred prisoners were taken in the forest of Le Petre between Tuesday and Thursday.

Steamer Lockwood Torpedoed.
[By Associated Press.]
London, April 3.—The British steamer Lockwood was torpedoed Friday night off the Devonshire coast.

The crew was saved. The Lockwood was of 650 tons displacement.

German Statement.
[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, April 3.—(Official.)—The Belgians failed yesterday in an attempt to recapture Klosterhoek Farm, which the Germans captured Wednesday.

The French attacks in the forest of Le Petre and west of Muelhausen were repulsed. Nothing important transpired on the Eastern front.

U. S. Observers Ordered Home.
[By Associated Press.]
Berlin, April 3.—The five American army officers attached to the German military as observers today received orders from Washington to return. There is much surprise here.

Garrison Explains.
[By Associated Press.]
Washington, April 3.—Secretary of War Garrison said he ordered the observers to return because their mission was completed. No others will be detailed with the German army.

Reported Escape Denied.
[By Associated Press.]
Washington, April 3.—On account of a storm the wires have been down all day to Norfolk and Newport News, and a report was printed in New York that the Prinz Eitel Friedrich had escaped to sea, but at 1 o'clock this afternoon a wireless to Washington said she was still there.

Italy Out for New Territory.
[By Associated Press.]
Rome, April 3.—The Giornale de Italia says nobody in Italy denies Russia's right to gain from the disruption of Austria, and Italy has just as important reasons, nationally and strategically, to gain new territory.

STORM SWEEPS ATLANTIC COAST

The Lusitania Was Prevented Sailing From New York—Wind Was Sixty Miles an Hour.

[By Associated Press.]
New York, April 3.—The liner Lusitania, with 800 passengers, was kept from sailing today by thick weather and a snowstorm. A north-east gale swept the Atlantic seaboard from Florida to New England. The wind was sixty miles an hour at Delaware breakwater. Seabright, N. J., was battered by a gale and threatened by the gale and fire at the same time. The fire was subdued. In the early afternoon the snowstorm and gale showed no signs of abating.
